Heartland Quilt Network connects quilt guilds, shops, and professionals in the heartland through newsletters, member rosters, a website, and an annual meeting.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

I would like to welcome all those who have become members of HQN since our last newsletter. We are happy to have you and need your input to make the organization successful.

The date for the annual meeting has been set and plans are in progress for a great meeting. We planned the meeting not to conflict with the KC Shop Hop so that the professionals who work in the various shops would be able to attend the meeting.

The meeting will be April 14 at the Community Covenant Church located at 15700 West 87th St. Parkway in Lenexa (the same church as last year). The deadline for registration will be March 30th. The La Quinta Motel 9461 Lenexa Drive is holding a block of rooms for anyone needing to come Friday and spend the night. The amt. of the room is the same as last year $62+tax. Reservation should be made before March 31st and should be made directly with the motel. (913-492-5500). The meeting of the board will be April 13th at 7:00pm at the motel.

Professionals can set up starting at 9am and registration will begin at 9:30 with the meeting starting at 10am. Lunch will be provided with the $10 registration fee. Professionals are invited to bring examples of their work and make a short presentation. A table will be provided for their display. Professionals are encouraged to send 150 copies of anything they want included in the Guild packets with their registration.

Guilds are invited to bring opportunity quilts and should bring their own means of displaying the quilt.

Registration forms for the meeting are available on the web site. I would encourage guilds to send their president and program chairperson, and any other interested members are cordially invited to attend. There is a lot of very useful information exchanged!

The position of publicity chair remains vacant. We would welcome a volunteer to assume this responsibility.

Thanks for your continued support and participation of the Heartland Quilt Network.

Hazel Meade

Kansas Quilts of Valor

Update!

The Eisenhower Museum donated 100 quilts to this cause, so now only 300 quilts are needed for the returning soldiers from Fort Riley. Send your fully completed quilts to the following address below by the end of February.

Quilts of Valor--Kansas Bee
Attn: Martha Smith
2364 Cardinal
Wichita KS 67204

Remember that they would also like to have a pillowcase or bag for each quilt. Please pass this information along to your Guild members and friends that may be interested in helping. And thanks for your support.

If you cannot make a quilt, money is always needed to pay for shipping costs to Fort Riley. If you are interested in more information, contact Katy Vickers at katy@govf.org. Also, please let other quilters know about this.

Here is a link to the Kansas Quilts of Valor newsletter with information about Fort Riley and also how to make the quilts.

Quilters, this is one way to give back to our men and women who have sacrificed for us. Hopefully we can respond with quilts individually or made by a group.

The Homestead Act of 1862

As a result of The Homestead Act of 1862, 270 million acres of land, owned by the Federal Government, in 30 states, was offered for homesteading, thus creating the Westward Movement, one of the largest migrations of people in our nation's history.

The pioneers spent months, sometimes up to a year - preparing for their trip West. Men saw to the wagons, animals, weapons, farm equipment and tools. The women salted meats and dried fruits and sweet corn, purchased coffee and beans and barrels of sugar and flour. They packed dishes, clothing, utensils, needles and thread...and they sewed. In fact, a great deal of sewing was done, as travel guides suggested that each family should bring enough bedding so that each man, woman and child would have 2-3 blankets or quilts.

While some quilts were packed as treasures in trunks, others were kept close at hand for daily use. They served a variety of purposes not only on the trip west, but also once the pioneers arrived at their destination.

Through the years, quilts have become documents of history. They are the products of their society, influenced by the culture, and the environment of the people who made them. The history of America can be seen in the history of quilts. Stitched into these quilts is the rich heritage of thrifty self-sufficient women who helped homestead the land, the history of families sewn into quilts one patch or one stitch at a time, and the legacy of the art of quilting, passed on from generation to generation.

Thousands of quilt blocks and patterns have been created and sewn through the decades. The quilt patterns or "blocks" that are displayed on the Quilt Trail were in the quilts used by pioneer women as they traveled West and homesteaded the prairie. They also depict other popular patterns used in 1862, when the Homestead Act was signed by President Lincoln, up until the Act was repealed in 1988.

Follow the trail to learn more about quilt making and the history of quilts and how they truly are documents of history, reflecting who we were as a nation and a people.

The monument is located four miles west of Beatrice, Nebraska. The exhibit opens April 28, 2012. For more information on the exhibit and pattern information, check out this link: <http://www.nps.gov/home/planyourvisit/quilt-discovery-experience.htm>

There are three events planned involving quilts; there will be a quilt discovery walk, a showing of the quilt challenge from the Nebraska State Quilt Guild, and an exhibit at the International Quilt Museum in Lincoln, Nebraska. All of the dates have not yet been set.

The Rabbit's Lair Now Has Two Locations!

The Rabbit's Lair Creative Fabric and Fiber Center of Rogers, Arkansas, has expanded shop inventory by moving the yarn section to a location right around the corner.

The former Poor Richard's Building at 116 South First Street is now the home of RL2 Creative Fiber Shop. The beauty of the historic building shows off the luxury yarns and accessories in glass showcases and on handcrafted wooden shelves lining the walls. The tile ceilings and other original fixtures add to the old world charm of the shop. The original soda fountain is now home to a coffee bar where customers may treat themselves and have a chance to sit and stitch. Classes for knitting and crochet will be held at this location. The original yarn inventory has been tripled and continues to grow.

The Rabbit's Lair Creative Fabric Shop at 116 West Walnut remains the home for fabric, wool glass showcases and on handcrafted wooden shelves lining the walls. The tile ceilings and other original fixtures add to the old world charm of the shop. The original soda fountain is now home to a coffee bar where customers may treat themselves and have a chance to sit and stitch. Classes for knitting and crochet will be

The inventory at this location has also expanded and new items arrive daily. Classes and clubs for quilts, stitchery and more are held in the spacious mezzanine area of the shop.

Mary Elizabeth Schopp and Clarice Moore, shop owners, invited you to visit and experience the excitement generated in both these shops. The historic Rogers downtown area is the perfect blend of past, present and future!

INTERNATIONAL QUILT STUDY CENTER AND MUSEUM

Inscribed quilts will be telling stories at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The exhibit, "What's In A Name? Inscribed Quilts", will run through December 2, 2012. Inscribed quilts emerged in the USA in the 1840's. They often were gifts for friends and neighbors, marking important events such as marriage and childbirth. (Quoted from USA Today).

If you have never gone to the International Quilt Study Center and Museum, check out the link to the website. Other exhibits this year are "Tribute to Ardis James" from January 6, 2012 to July 29, 2012 and "Second Time Around Quilts" re-made by Joan White from May 7, 2011 into 2012. The museum has exhibits which change regularly including traveling exhibits.

The Center is located at 1523 N. 38th Street, Lincoln Nebraska 68503 on the University of Nebraska campus. It is closed Mondays and all major holidays. Entrance fee is $6.00. For more information call 402-472-6549 or go to www.quiltstudy.org.
