

MOKA QUILT STUDY GROUP – MISSOURI – April 17 & 18, 2015

University Plaza and Museum on the Square, Springfield, Missouri

QUILTS, QUILTS AND MORE QUILTS

Friday, April 17, 2015 –

6:30 p.m. - Registration at University Plaza, including registering items for the silent auction

7:00 p.m. - John Q. Hammons Room at University Plaza
Lori East, Presents “Sign Here Please”

Lori is an AQS-certified quilt appraiser, historian, quilt researcher, lecturer, quiltmaker, judge, and teacher. In this lecture, she explores the history of the American signature quilts and shares examples from her collection. She will help unravel the mystery of signature quilts: why these quilts were created, what they can tell us about place and time and how we can create our own versions today.

Saturday, April 18, 2015 –

9:00 a.m. - Registration at the Museum on the Square

9:30 a.m. - Museum on the Square

Joan Hampton Porter, Curator, Presents “Highlights of the Quilt Collection of the Museum on the Square”

She will show several examples of the museum’s collection as well as a power point presentation on the entire collection.

11:30 a.m. – Box lunch in the John Q. Hammons Room at University Plaza

12:30 p.m. - John Q. Hammons Room
Merrily McKim Tuohey, Presents
“Ruby Short McKim – My Personal Treasure”

Merrily McKim Tuohey--Youngest Granddaughter of Ruby Short McKim

Merrily will feature a brief introduction to Ruby Short McKim, the story of destiny's hand in a granddaughter's journey, a glimpse into her Grammy's personal and professional history, and a viewing of quilt treasures in the McKim Family collection.
