Andrea LeBeau, Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe

1114 Rhode Island st, Lawrence, KS 66044

785-979-8356

Andrealebeau1@gmail.com

Artist Summary

Andrea LeBeau of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe is a know Lakota Star Quilt maker. She has made over 400 Lakota Star quilts to date. Andrea has been making star quilts since 2011. She is also administrator of a Facebook group called "Star quilt tips and tricks" which allows both learners and experienced star quilt makers to learn and share knowledge to assist others with making Star quilts. The group currently has over 9,000 members.

PROGRAM SUMMARY:

Lakota Star quilts and the significance in the Native American Community

-Providing education on background of star quilt, aka Lone star quilt.

-How the Lakota Tribes were introduced to the making of the star quilt

- How the star quilt has become important in the Native American Community

-Providing education on cultural teachings(uses in the Native American Community, colors, teachings of a quilt maker) in making Lakota Star Quilts

- primarily Sharing of various quilts as well as star quilt design utilization on other Native American crafts.

