Everyday Stitches:
Where Every Stitch Tells a Story

Jenifer Dick and Trisch Price met at quilt guild about 2000, when both were busy juggling growing children and quilting to stay sane! Fifteen years later, after each embarked on their individual careers in quilting, they joined forces to create Everyday Stitches. They are dedicated to bringing quiltmakers of all skill levels quality patterns you can depend on for their accuracy and fun!

Today their collection of 75+ quilt patterns also includes the Everyday Curve and Everyday Curve Jr. template sets and 18 companion patterns. Their Everyday Appliqué line made of easy, quirky patterns appeals to your whimsical side. Pieced patterns that use a variety of techniques and skill sets rounds out their pattern catalog. Their commitment to craftmanship and creativity can be seen in every stitch!

Talking Quilts with Everyday Stitches

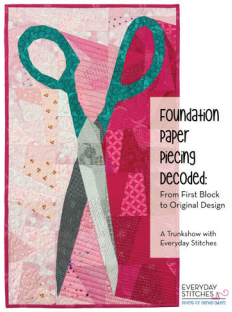

An Evening of Design, Technique and Inspiration!

Join Jenifer and Trisch for an hour of fun and inspiration as they share a sampling of their collection including pieced, applique, foundation-paper pieced, and curve-pieced quilts. They'll share the backstories and inspiration for each one. You are guaranteed to learn something new about quilt design and technique while enjoying some fabulous quilts!

Foundation-Paper Piecing Decoded:

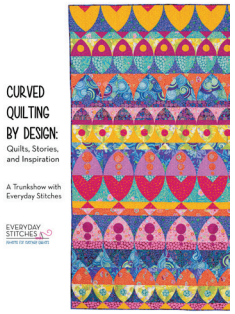

From First Block to Original Design

Have you ever wanted to design your own foundation-paper pieced (FPP) block? Or are you simply curious how it all comes together? Join Trisch and Jenifer as they guide you step-by-step through the foundation-paper piecing process. You'll learn exactly how it's done, gain practical tips along the way, and leave with the knowledge – and confidence – to create your own paper pieced quilt.

An overhead projector is required for this presentation.

Curved Quilting by Design: Quilts, Stories & Inspiration

Join Jenifer and Trisch for an hour filled with fun, inspiration, and beautiful quilts as they showcase their Everyday Curve quilts and share the stories behind each one. You'll gain fresh insight into quilt design and curved-piecing techniques – all while enjoying a trunk show of truly unique quilts.

If your guild or shop has an overhead projector, even better! They'll include a live demonstration so you can see just how simple and approachable curved piecing can be.
